Definition of EAL

Here at North Wootton Academy, we have adopted the DfE's definition of EAL as:

"A pupils first language is defined as any language other than English that a child was exposed to during early development and continues to be exposed to in the home or community." DfE, 2016

Introduction

This policy sets out the schools aims, objectives, strategies with regard to meeting the needs and celebrating the skills of EAL pupils and helping them to achieve the highest possible standard.

Aims and Objectives

At North Wootton Academy:

- We are committed to ensuring that every child succeeds and achieves their full potential.
- We aim to give all pupils the opportunity to overcome any barrier to learning by providing them with a positive, supportive, secure and safe learning environment.
- We implement appropriate strategies to ensure all EAL pupils are supported in accessing the full curriculum.

A member of the SMT is nominated to have responsibility for EAL.

In addition to the above assessment, at the end of each academic year, children are assessed using the 5 Stage Model of Language Acquisition.

Our 5 Stage Model of Language Acquisition

A – New to English

A child may:

- Use their first language for learning and other purposes.
- Remain silent in the classroom.
- Copy/repeat some words and phrases.
- Understand some everyday English expressions but have minimal or no English Literacy.
- Follow day-to-day social communication in English.
- Begin to use spoken English for social purposes.
- Understand simple instructions and follow narrative/accounts with visual support.
- Develop some skills in reading and writing.
- Become familiar with some subject specific vocabulary.

A child at this stage needs significant support.

B – Early Acquisition

A child may:

- Participate in learning activities with increasing independence.
- Express themselves orally in English but structural inaccuracies are still apparent.
- Requires ongoing support in Literacy, particularly for understanding text and writing.

- Follow abstract concepts and more complex written English.

A child at this stage requires support to access the curriculum fully.

C – Developing Competence

A child may:

- Be developing oral English well, allowing successful engagement in activities across the curriculum.
- Read and understand a variety of texts.
- Written English may lack complexity.
- Demonstrate evidence of errors in grammatical structure.

A child at this stage may need support to access subtle differences of meaning, to refine English usage, and to develop abstract vocabulary.

D – Competent

A child at this stage can operate across the curriculum to a level of competence nearing to that of a pupil who uses English as their first language. They may still make some grammatical errors and need support to develop their linguistic skills.

E – Fluent

A child at this stage can operate across the curriculum to a level of competence equivalent to that of a pupil who uses English as their first language.

Supporting EAL Pupils

At the beginning of each new half term, pupils with English as an additional language will take part in some topic vocabulary pre-teaching. This will be carried out by a member of support staff within their phase. It will allow them to learn new vocabulary and explore its meaning before hearing it for the first time in non-core subjects.

In addition to pre-teaching of topic vocabulary, pupils will read daily in school. This will be their reading book from school, whether it is a colour banded book or a free reader.

All EAL children will be highlighted on each Phase intervention map and will receive additional support in core areas of learning inc Mathematics and writing.

EYFS and Key Stage 1 pupils have a license for Easy Peasy English which is an iPad app in the style of flashcards. This is where they aim to learn a minimum of 5 new words a day.

Key Stage 2 pupils receive 1:1 writing support from a HLTA which focuses on grammar and writing stamina.

Teaching Strategies

The curriculum is very much knowledge based with a high emphasis on new vocabulary support pupils with English as an additional language. The speaking and listening element is always the starting point for introducing a new topic and writing then follows. Key vocabulary is evident on working walls in every classroom with visual aids to support, where possible.

As a school, we encourage a lot of conversation and communication in lessons especially using 'talk partners' and collaborative group work.
